Tutoring Experience

Over the past seven years, I have guided students in IGCSE and GCSE Science, helping them excel across diverse topics such as biology, chemistry, and physics. My experience working with international curriculums has given me insight into the specific needs of students aiming for top results.

Having worked with students from Sweden, the UK, and beyond, I bring a global perspective to my teaching. My focus is on helping students build strong foundational knowledge in science, which has enabled many to pursue advanced studies and scientific careers.
