Tutoring Experience

For the past decade, I've guided students in IGCSE and A-Level Geography, helping them develop a solid understanding of environmental systems, physical geography, and human impacts on landscapes. My familiarity with international curricula has enabled me to effectively support students from Denmark, the UK, and beyond.

Throughout my career, I've had the privilege of helping students achieve excellent results on exams, with many reaching grades above their predicted targets. I focus on both knowledge and skill-building, guiding students through complex geographic theories and analysis.

My tutoring has also extended to AP Geography, where I've supported students in navigating challenging coursework. I enjoy seeing students gain confidence in understanding the world around them, which often leads them to explore careers in environmental science and geography.
